

Going to Future Passive

Write the verbs in the Going to Future Passive.

Example: Someone is going to clean the room.
The room is going to be cleaned.

1. Someone is going to fix the TV.
The TV
2. They are going to plant some trees.
Some trees
3. They are going to demolish the building.
The building
4. The authorities are going to stop the train.
The train by the authorities.
5. The government is not going to lower the taxes.
The taxes
6. They are not going to surface the roads.
The roads
7. No one is going to help him.
He by anyone.
8. He is not going to do the cleaning.
The cleaning
9. Is she going to reply?
..... it?
10. Are they going to consider your request?
..... your request?
11. Are they going to refund the money?
..... the money?
12. Are they going to service the car?
..... the car?

Going to Future Passive

Write the verbs in the Going to Future Passive.

Example: Someone is going to clean the room.
The room is going to be cleaned.

1. Someone is going to fix the TV.
The TV is going to be fixed.
2. They are going to plant some trees.
Some trees are going to be planted.
3. They are going to demolish the building.
The building is going to be demolished.
4. The authorities are going to stop the train.
The train is going to be stopped by the authorities.
5. The government is not going to lower the taxes.
The taxes are not going to be lowered.
6. They are not going to surface the roads.
The roads are not going to be surfaced.
7. No one is going to help him.
He is not going to be helped by anyone.
8. He is not going to do the cleaning.
The cleaning is not going to be done.
9. Is she going to reply?
Is it going to be replied?
10. Are they going to consider your request?
Is your request going to be considered?
11. Are they going to refund the money?
Is the money going to be refunded?
12. Are they going to service the car?
Is the car going to be serviced?