A) Read the text and ask questions to get the underlined information. Sir Walter Raleigh (1552-1618)

(e.g.) Sir Walter Raleigh was a famous English explorer and writer. He was also Queen Elizabeth's favourite writer. He went to Oxford as a student (1) in 1568. One year later, he left Oxford. He went and fought in France.

From 1584 to 1589, he (2) sent ships across the Atlantic. (3) Raleigh and his men explored North America. They gave the name Virginia to one part. They came back (4) to England with tobacco.

Raleigh explored the Orinocco river in South America in 1595 (5) because he wanted to find gold.

James I became king in 1603. He put (6) Raleigh in the Tower of London. Raleigh stayed there for 13 years. His wife and son lived with him nearly all the time. He began A History of the World. He worked very hard and very carefully, and only wrote the first part of it.

King James gave Raleigh his freedom in 1617 and he sailed to Orinocco again, but he still didn't find any gold. When he came back home, (7) he was forty-six.

The king put him back in the Tower again. In 1618, (8) Sir Walter Raleigh lost his head.
